

Biography – Professor Peter Reekie

Professor Peter Reekie is Property Training Consultant with Penningtons. He is also Visiting Professor at The College of Law. He is director of Peter Reekie Associates Co Ltd, which provides legal training and related services to lawyers and other professionals. He is currently a non-practising solicitor. He spent some years in private practice dealing with residential and commercial property work. He worked for The College of Law and was managing director of Legal Network Television. He writes for publication and lectures extensively at property law conferences, seminars and related events. He is Consultant Materials Editor for the College of Law's Structured Commercial Property Programme. He is Consultant Editor of The Conveyancing Handbook, pub. The Law Society.